DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1961, proudly dedicate this edition of the Susquehannock to Rodney C. Kelchner who has in the past five years won the respect and admiration of the entire student body of M.H.S.

As a member of the faculty he has been the ideal teacher by giving his students the guidance, friendship, and understanding which they need at all times.

Mr. Kelchner is one who believes in the importance of fair play and he has continually proved to be an example of good sportsmanship while fulfilling his coaching responsibilities.

To you, Mr. Kelchner, we sincerely wish the best of luck and hope that you will continue to be as successful in your teaching career as you have been here in the past.

1961 Susquehannock Staff:

To the staff of the yearbook I extend my congratulations on the successful preparation of another edition of the Susquehannock. Only you who have labored the many hours needed for the completion of this task realize the great amount of time which is involved. Only you, too, now realize the value of the time you spent working on this project.

It is my hope and wish that you have profited from this experience and that it may benefit you in your future endeavors.

The satisfaction of the completion of the assigned task is yours. Your reward is this publication and the satisfaction you derive in the viewing of your efforts.

Seniors:

In his infinite wisdom, God has given each of us a certain quantity of talents.

During the past twelve years, each of you has had the opportunity to make your talents grow and prosper.

With graduation you have reached a crossroads in life. You may now bury your talents in the earth wherein, as with the proverb of old, you will gain nothing and enjoy very little reward, or you may invest your talents wisely and grow rich in achievement and great in renown.

Your challenge now, is to determine a way of investing your talents in such a manner as to reap the greatest reward.

I personally wish each of you the greatest success possible.

CLASS HISTORY

Job Application Form

Name—Class of 1961

Address—Millersburg Upper-Paxton Union High School

Number of Promotions—12

Description of previous jobs

1948 “But, Mommy, aren’t you going to stay? I don’t want to go!” We begin our trek through time on a sunny day in September of 1948. Of course, we couldn’t wait to begin school and therefore, we just rushed into our room. Our foreman, Mrs. Heckert, said we had a lot to learn, and how right she was! We were informed we had to start at the bottom, and work ourselves up to higher jobs. However, they expected us even to be able to print our names! If we wouldn’t have had those rest periods, we would probably never have been graduated.

Employer’s Comment—Big project completed—they all learned how to tie their shoes.

1949 “Ha, ha, ha, I know how to read, and you don’t.” We were really proud that we could read, and of course we just loved those fascinating tales about Jane, Dick, and that mischievous cat, Puff. We had such a glorious time drawing precision hop-scotchs for us. Remember all the delicious candy Mrs. Hartman used to feed us. My, it was yummy.

Employer’s Comment—Decided to give them promotion on account of services well rendered.

1950 “Wouldn’t you know it? After we had all that trouble learning how to print our names now we have to learn to write our names.” Putting all our knowledge we had learned in art class, Foreman Miller’s gang constructed with great care that famous horse, Velvet, or was it Beauty? It seems we all had our own name for him. Our second home this year was the cloak room. It seems we were always being sent to the cloak room for misbehavior. Oh, well.

Employer’s Comment—What was that girl trying to do when she washed the blackboards with soap powder? We don’t want green blackboards yet!

1951 “No, no, first you must make the hut before you can put the roof on it.” Most of us were assigned to the construction crew this year. Part of our gang worked strenuously on the adobe hut, while the rest helped to build the igloo. Of course, we mustn’t forget the crew that set up the Indian tent either. Work, work, work, that’s all we do.” Oh, we can’t say that. Didn’t those lucky Lenkerville employees get to investigate the circus that one day?

Employer’s Comment—“Pass the popcorn, and please sit down.”

1952 “Quick, see who can get that note first! Don’t let him get it.” This year our main hobby was passing notes. In every nook and cranny that could be found, we stuffed notes. We also had an on-the-job training course, in which we curiously investigated the remodeling of our Moore Street building. It was interesting, until the workers started to chase us away. That’s right, we mustn’t forget Bible School, we attended every Wednesday afternoon.

Employer’s Comment—Would you like to buy some flower seeds?

1953 “His head is too big. No, now it’s too small. What color should I paint Pocahontas?” Didn’t we have fun painting those historical figures on cardboard? They seemed so much alive. And, gee, I almost forgot that some of us read Robin Hood this year. However, there was a crack down on coffee breaks this year. They had to terminate at a period of three seconds, for we don’t want any loafing on the job.

Employer’s Comment—Repeat after me, Popocatapetl.

1954 "Mrs. Seal, isn't it the girls' turn to play baseball on the field?" It seems we had a little trouble this year about recreation privileges. It seems that the boys didn't think the girls should play baseball for some reason or other. For being such well behaved workers, not only were we allowed to listen to Uncle Dan on the radio each week, but as a special reward we went to the park for a huge staff picnic. Oh, yes, didn't the Lenkerville crew put on a wonderful play? It was that famous production of Christmas Around the World.

Employer's Comment—Which of the patrol members got lost in the zoo in Washington?

1955 "Gracious, where is room 28? You'd think they would have put up a sign to show you your way." We were a bit confused in the beginning with the new building and changing classes every period, but not for long. We were assigned long individual reports for the first time this year, but we passed that test with flying colors. Did you hear about that? Someone got whipped cream on the curtains during our homeroom play.

Employer's Comment—And this is the art room, and over there music classes are held.

1956 "Don't tell me we have to stay after work again? Who slammed his desk this time? No kidding? Must we stay because someone was talking?" This year we seemed either to gaze intently at the bulletin board, or were being kept after school for being noisy. But of course we also had fun. There were many transfers this year, and our crew was greatly enriched. Didn't the girls have a good time dissecting that eyeball under the supervision of our foreman?

Employer's Comment—Quiet back there, or you will write the Preamble 25 times.

1957 "Come one, come all to our fabulous bake sale. Would you like to buy some fudge or how about a watermelon cake." To raise money for future use, this year we had a real gone bake sale. Besides this unforgettable event, we can't forget this was the first year of our special training in the various courses of Algebra, Latin, Exploratory Business, etc. Of course, we can't forget the initiation of the F.F.A.

Employers' Comment— $8(X \cdot Y) = 15(A + b)$ Amo, amas, amat.

1958 "Move the picture slightly to the left. Now try the lighting—perfect." This was an eventful year. Foreman Gilbert's crew put on that wonderful play, "It's Cold in Them Thar Hills." Oh, and remember the assembly when a certain boy was catching mice with a paper cup. One of our evening activities included a hay ride, with a dance following it, gosh, I almost forgot that we sold Christmas candy. My, it was a busy year.

Employer's Comment—Who ate all the candy samples?

1959 "How do you build a plantation? The building is certainly hard to keep white. This will be about the third time we painted it." Gads! This year went fast. It seems as though we had just entered when it was over. Of course, we had a lot to do. Those of us who were interested could take a course in physics, although we always seemed to be dropping weights during our experiments. Then we just loved writing that competitive essay for English honors. When the night of the big dance came, all were excited. We knew that all that hammering, painting, and mopping of floors couldn't have gone to waste.

Employers' Comment—I'm a Yogi.

1960 "Wait for me! I hope the bus doesn't leave. What will I do if I get lost in Washington? I mustn't panic." Our job will be finished this year at the Millersburg Plant. It has been a job filled with memories, which included a quick trip to Washington, the acquiring of crew pictures, and the many little experiences we had. We will never forget it.

Employer's Comment—Please don't break any more chemistry equipment. Please!

And so ends our trek through time and our description of previous jobs. Our next assignment—the wide, wide world.

Signed, the Class of '61.

CLASS PROPHECY

"Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! Right this way to Madam Lazonga, Crystal Ball Gazer. Step right in. Madam Lazonga sees all, hears all, and knows all. So Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!"

"Madam Lazonga, my name is . . ."

"I know what your name is young man. It's Scalpi, and you are the mascot for Millersburg Upper-Paxton High School."

"Correct Madam Lazonga, and I come to . . ."

"You come to look years ahead into the future of some young men and women, the Seniors of Millersburg, the Class of '61."

"Good, let's get started."

"First I see you going to Hollywood to a movie studio. There is a name on the door—it says LARRY GRAEFF, Hollywood Makeup Artist. You will journey to the heart of Los Angeles to the Stone-mer Private Investigating Agency owned by LOLA STONEROAD and BONNIE WITMER. They have some helpers I think you will be interested in. There is a young man who wanted to be a Physical Ed. Teacher; but is working as Judo Instructor to these Private Eyes. His name is EDGAR MARCH. They also have a nurse. Her name is SANDRA KLINE, there is, in addition, Ballistics expert, Dr. RICHARD LENKER.

"I see Washington, D. C., next—The Federal Bureau of Investigation. A young secretary works there by the name of DONNA BELLIS. There is another girl working there. She was selected from the Philadelphia Police Force for her record. Her name is DORIS LENKER.

"You are zooming to New York in a rocket to the United Nations. Inside I see someone standing at the podium. She is an interpreter. Her name is KAREN SWINEHART. I see a photographers' studio on 42nd Street. The door is opening to the reception room. A young secretary is perched upon her desk. Well, her name is KATHLEEN BUFFINGTON.

"There is a Beauty Salon next door owned by Madam CAROLYN BOYER. There seems to be a strong thought wave in this salon of a man, JAMES ZERBY, Mathematics Instructor at Princeton University. On the East-side there is a Hot Rod Club, 'The Road Walkers,' owned by Mr. CHARLES COLEMAN.

"Now the crystal has switched to the 'New York Herald.' It seems to be the sports editor's door. Yes, the Editor is ROBERT SMELTZ. The crystal is fading. I can just distinguish a trade school. I can't make it out, but the Three Stooges are standing out in front. No, I'm sorry. It's not the Three Stooges. It's WILLIAM HARNER, GERALD GRAEFF, and WILLIAM FITE.

"Now I see you in Annapolis, in the Admiral's office. You are talking to Admiral STEVE SHRAWDER. His orderly is a former member of Millersburg High School, Ensign DOUGLAS HOY.

"My crystal ball is getting foggier and foggier. I can't understand it. Oh, I know why. You're in England. At Oxford University, they are commencing the initiation of Professor JAMES MANNING to the Loyal Order of the Faculty.

"I smell the smoke of some far away place. It's a small cafe in Paris, France. In a very poorly lighted corner with the smoke of burning cigarettes, cigars, and foods twining around her nostrils, sits that brilliant young history teacher, Mademoiselle DONNA WILT.

"Now there are noises like those of an airport. The receptionist at the TWA desk will look familiar to you. She is JUDY HOKE.

"You are back in New York City again. You're in a young attorney's office, that of LARRY BOLTON. The secretary is JOY MURRAY. They have some general office help there. I believe you know one of the young ladies. Her name is ROSALIE STRAIT. The countryside is now passing by; it seems as though you are going to Massachusetts, to Harvard. But wait! My crystal must have gone beserk. Miss ANNE SHEETZ is studying at Harvard.

"Now I see another college. It's name is Vassar. The student body of this girls' school is assembled, but wait! In the front row, as big as you please, are two students, FRED DANIELS and LARRY SNYDER.

"You're at Yankee Stadium. A player has two strikes called on him. Sh-h-h here comes the next pitch—strike three, you're out. I believe you know that player—it's DAVID DEIBLER.

"More country is going by. I see you in San Diego at one of the Navy Bases. What's this? Airman DONALD CARNS; two Army Sergeants, HAROLD KERSTETTER and HENRY PAUL; and two Marine Lieutenants, JAMES OCHENRIDER and TERRY MAIDEN.

"You seem to be going east again. You're stopping off at Jelly-Stone National Park. RONALD ROMBERGER is head Park Ranger.

"You're back in Washington again at Walter Reed Hospital. Two young Physical Therapists work here. They are PENNY HOTTENSTEIN and BETSY CUMMINGS. They have a medical secretary, JACQUIE MATTIS.

"There is a civil service worker in the Pentagon in whom you would be interested. I believe her name is PATTI SCHORR. She's some Big-Wig's secretary.

"Mr. Scalpi, you'll be interested to know how well one of your boys made out. His name is DENNIS LENKER, and he is the bookkeeper for the United States Secretary of the Treasury.

"A young man you know as a football star took up drafting at a trade school and is now a famous architect. You know him as DONALD ALBERT. He has two fine constructional engineers working for him. They are MIKE DANIELS and HAROLD SCHRADER. Their secretary-bookkeeper is Miss DHARLA WERT.

"You are going to Chicago, to a school where many of your friends work. A tall masculine man is the Physical Ed. teacher and also coach of football, baseball, and ping-pong. It's KENNETH HOOVER. Employed there are also two elementary teachers, PEGGY BEARD and MARLENE DEITRICH. The instrumental instructor is CAROL LEBO. Their Home Ec. teacher is MARTHA WERT. Their school nurse is a very nice young lady, JANE UNDERKOFFLER. The secretary for the school is a very efficient girl. When she was in school, her name was YVONNE SNYDER.

"The Monsieur Miller Barber and Beauty Salon is located in the Loop and is owned by IRVIN MILLER and ANNA TAYLOR. Their bookkeeper is Miss JUNE ENGLE, very good with figures.

"Miss NANCY RUSSELL and Miss POLLY DODSON are legal secretaries for Mr. Sam Clubs, attorney-at-law.

"Also in Chicago is the office of the best loved government service worker in Illinois, Miss MELANIE HOKE, Income tax collector.

"Now you are on your way again. This time you land in Kingston, New York. The building in front of you is the IBM Building; Miss MARILYN SEILER is an IBM Secretarial Instructor. Also in this office JANE PATTON takes care of all the important work that has to be done.

"You are on your way home now. Your next stop is the Thompson Business College in Harrisburg. There, working until all hours of the night, is that very studious business student, Miss DIANE TROUTMAN.

"In this great city of Harrisburg, the Metropolitan Insurance Company has employed three of your friends. They are DOROTHY CASNER, LEOLA KOHR, and DONNA LEITZEL.

"On to your home town of Millersburg where three of your students live.

"In Lenkerville lives Miss MARGARET OXENRIDER. She works at Regal Shirt Factory, where she has a very important job—Scorching Shirt Collars.

"On a small farm on the outskirts of Millersburg lives CLINTON ESHLEMAN. He is a truck farmer. He's been planting all types of trucks in his garden waiting to see what kind of truck will grow, but as yet he hasn't had much luck.

"And last of all I see the former CARLENE BONAWITZ. She is the mother of eight children, and is still looking forward to her set of twin girls.

"My crystal is fading out, so I believe I have told you what you wanted to know about all your students. Come back anytime you want to know anything. Remember, Madam Lazonga sees all, hears all, and knows all.

"Good-by for now, Mr. Scalpi, Good-by."

Have gun will travel

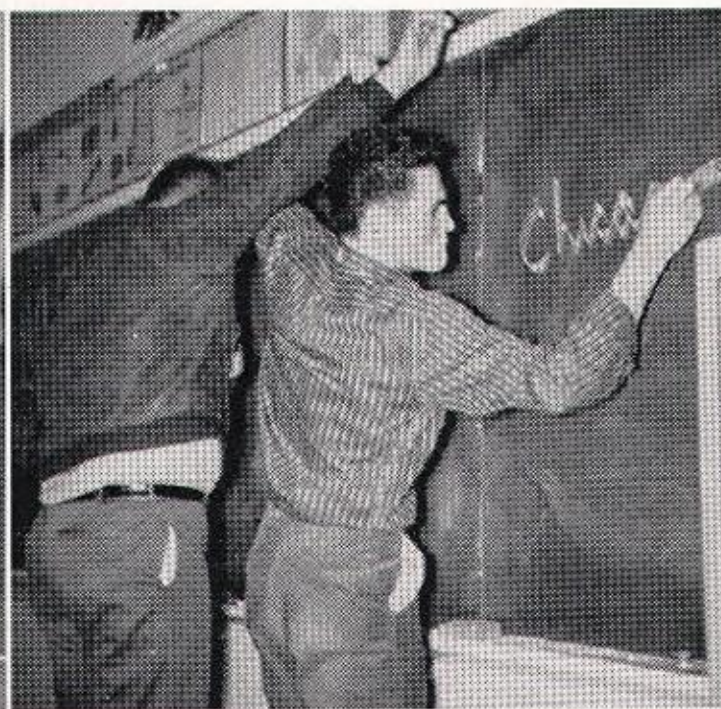

Anybody have a slingshot?

Little Miss Helper

Hey, when was this taken?

Hands off!

Ya' don't say?

Alright, who took it?

Our Miss Reference

Whadya' say?

Watchin' all the girls go by

Whistle while you work

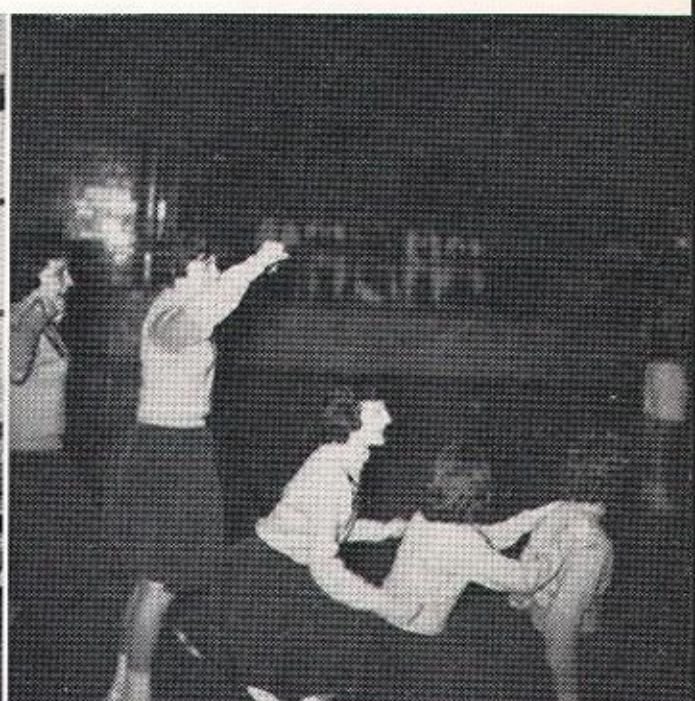

Blah—

Snowbound

Oh good, rice again

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y

Legs! Legs! Knee socks!

This is a study hall

asdfjkl;

They're in school.

Teachers unaware.

Our heroes!

"I gotcha covered."

Easter bonnets.

Down by the canal.

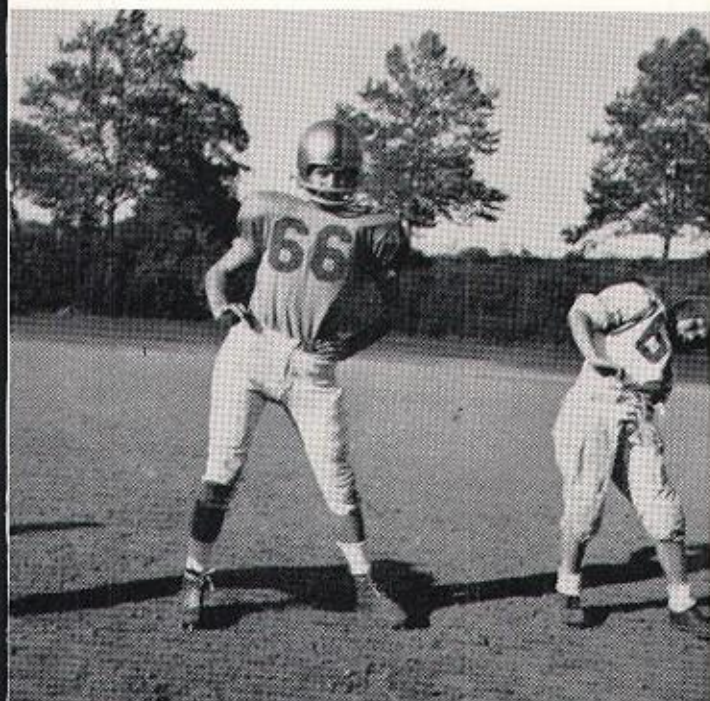

"And so I says . . ."

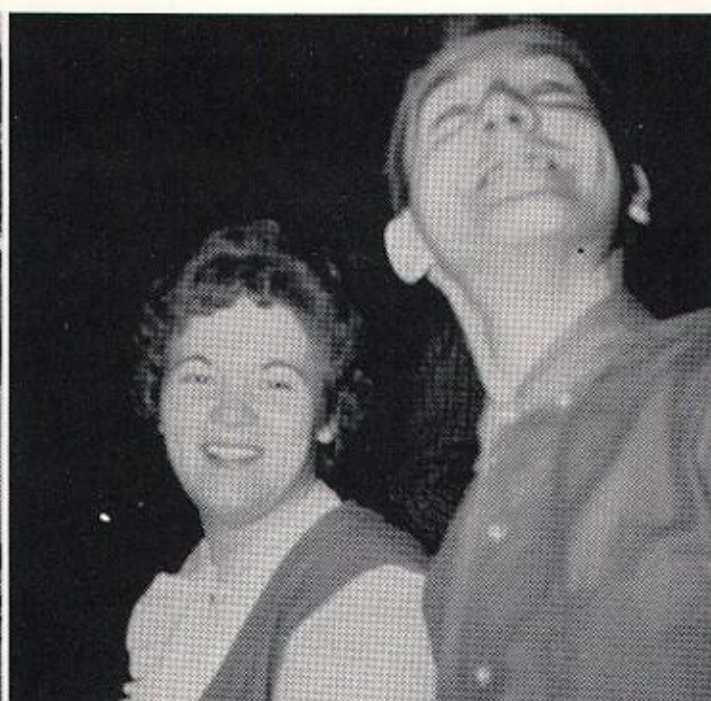

Come on team fight."

All this junk!

It can't be that bad!

Tell us too!

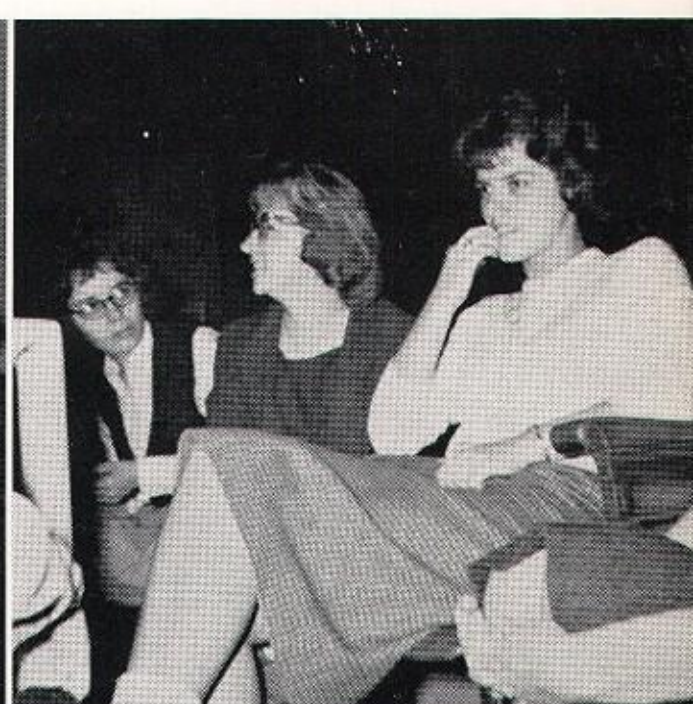

Don't laugh anyone.

Did she see the gum!

Knit 1, purl 2

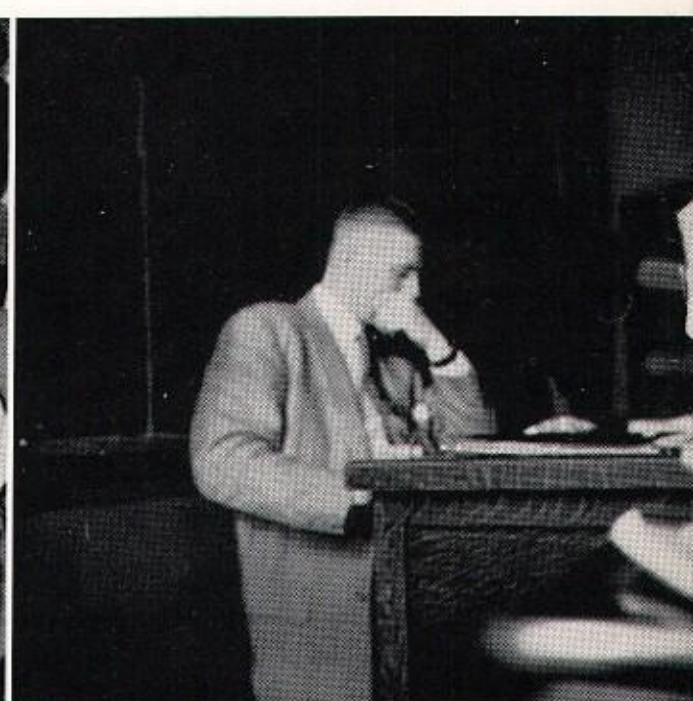

Is this gym class?

J.V. leaders.

Not on the floor!

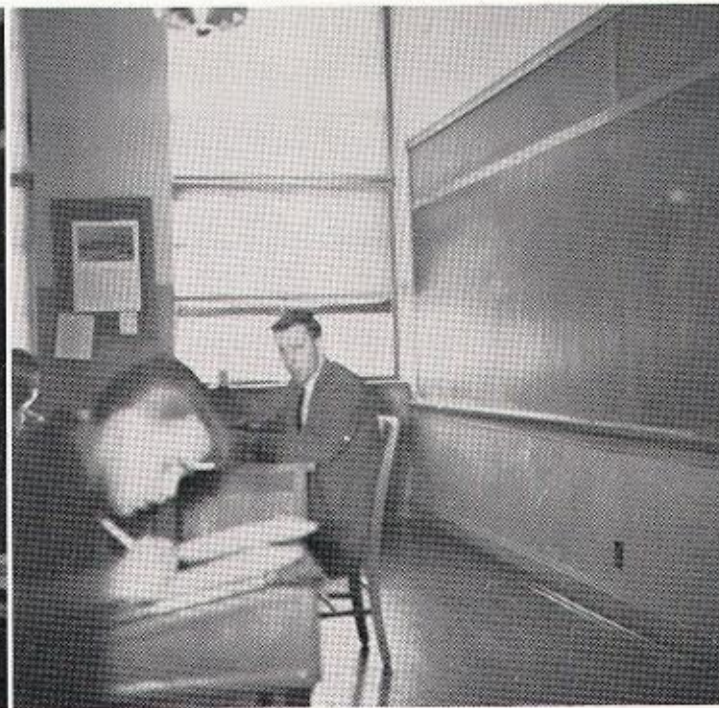

The thinker

Dig in and grin.

Math? Girls? or Food?

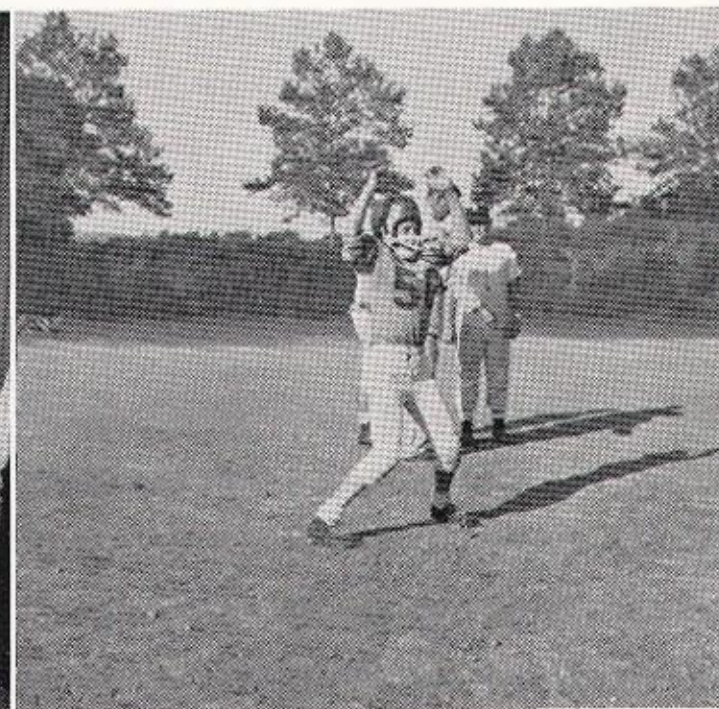

Alright I'll pose for you!

Is that so?

Caught you!

Reach for the sky pardner!

Tick Tock goes the clock.

Who? Me?

Hmm!

Products of M.H.S.

3:30 breakdown.

Results of the Xmas party.

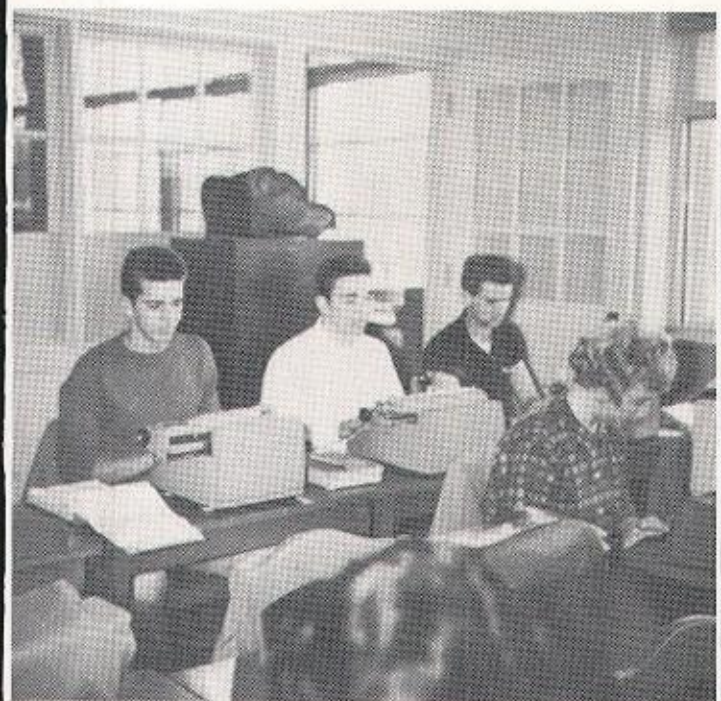

Is Mr. McKinney retiring?

A few more points girls.

Really! We don't like our pictures taken.

"Wee cant tiype."

Won't bookkeeping ever end?

Our Alma Mater

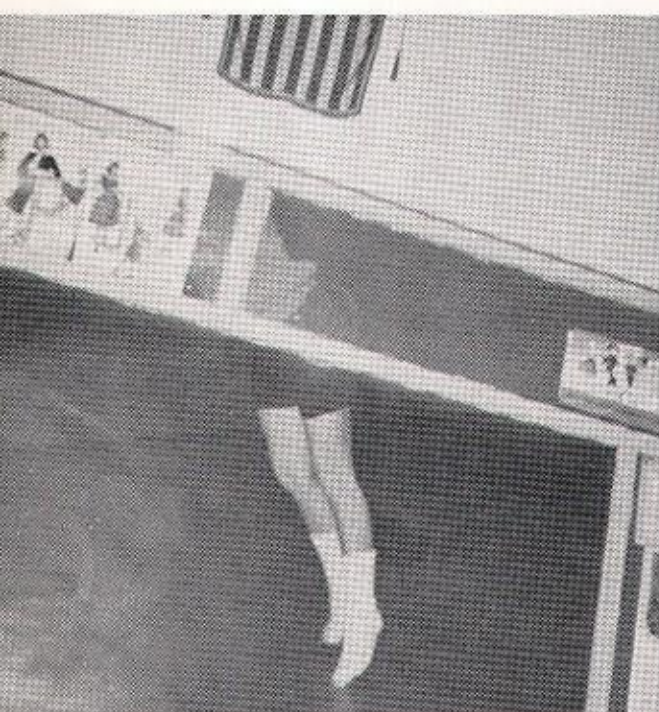

Time of study?

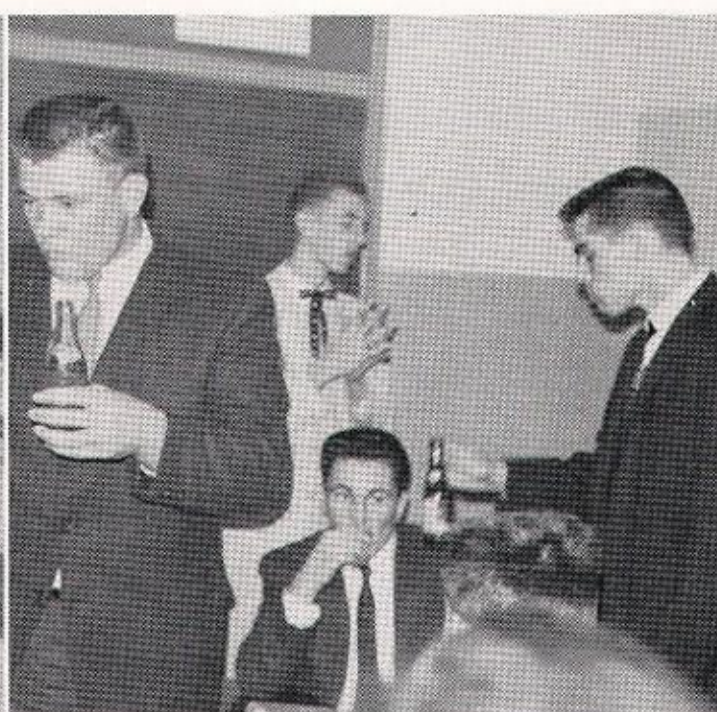

Don't forget me!

I'll have my autograph in a minute!

WHOOPS!

Don't you wish every day was like this?

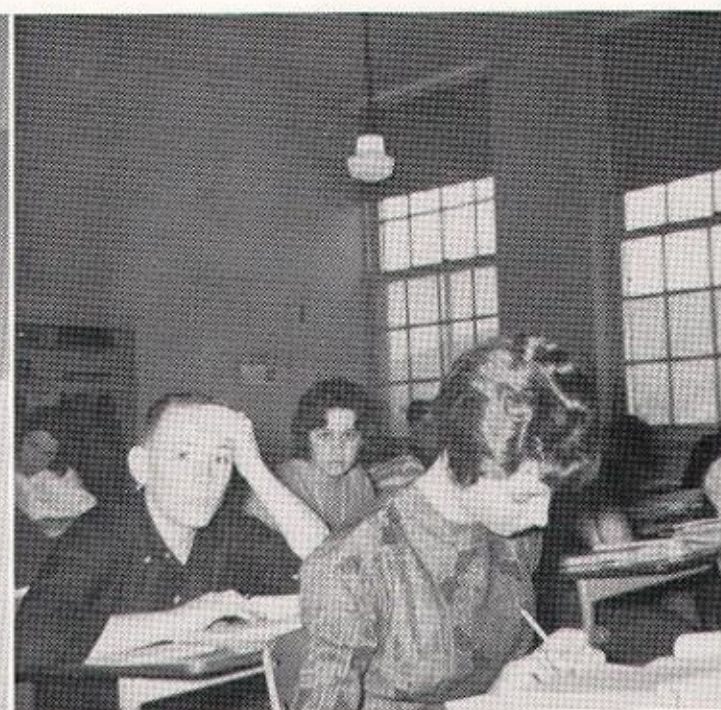

You'll never guess the winner!

Should I be doing this?

Adelante, siempre, adelante

Oh, my headache.

Save me a lick.

Is that the new "Jack and Jill," Skip?

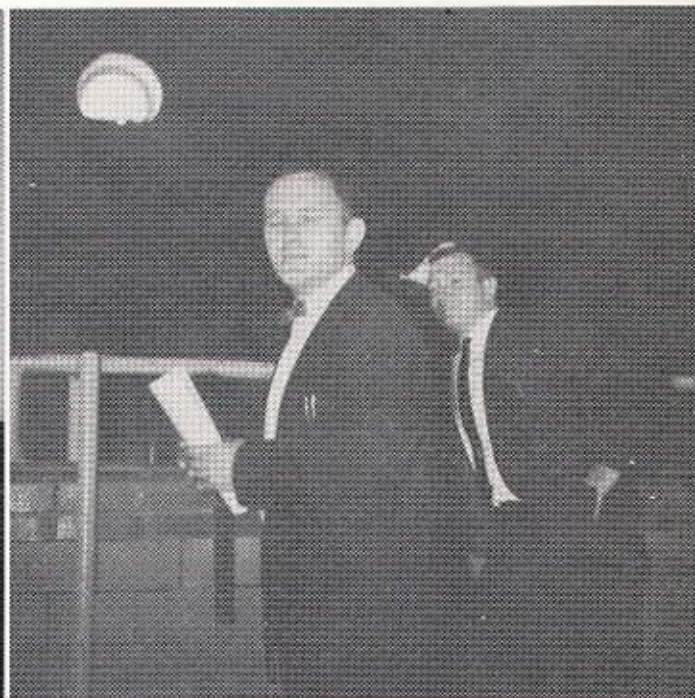

Harry's senior helpers.

Congratulations!

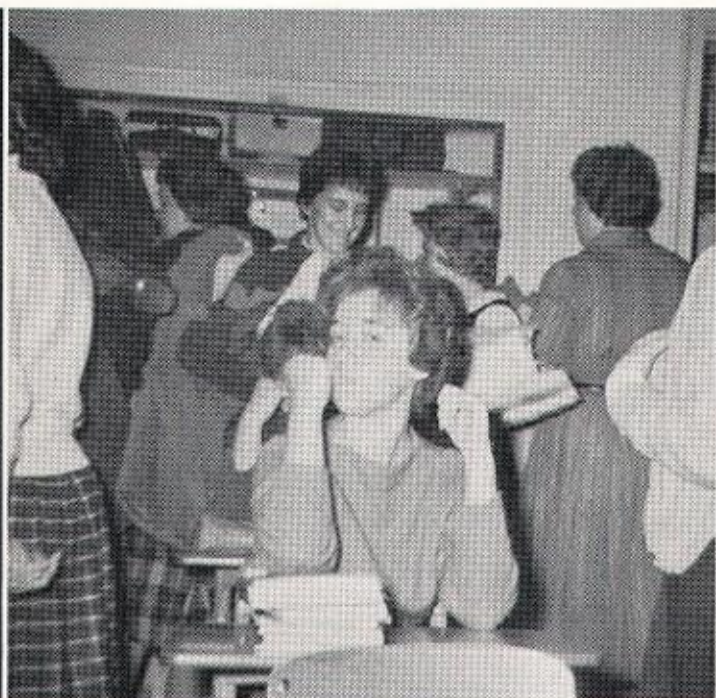

What did I do to deserve this?

No sleeping on the job!

Where?

Mad rush.

Welcome, Mr. Wise.

Future homemakers.

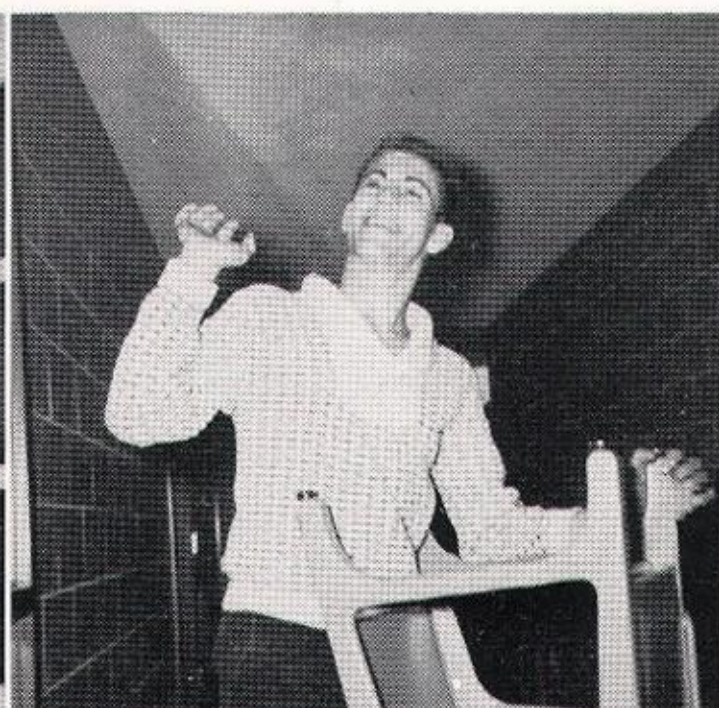

Mass confusion.

Now, was that so hard?

May I help you?

Well, tut-tut.

Wish we could see too.

Pat-a-cake, Pat-a-cake

You might know it's the answer book.

We're only comparing.
